BACK TO SCHOOL SHOPPING

by Kenn Nesbitt

My sleeves are too short and my jeans are too tight.
My shirt is so small that it doesn't fit right.

She begs and cajoles,
but I simply say. -No.
I want to stay home.
I would rather not go."

While new ones may fit
in the sleeves and the toes, the old ones I have are my favorite clothes.

shopping

My hat is too snug
and my socks all have holes.
My shoes are worn out on the sides and the soles.

My mom says it's time to go shopping for more.
She wants me to get some new clothes at the store.

8 Solve the riddles. / Uhodni hádanky:

These are two things that have tongues
But they don't have got any faces
You wear them when you go out
And often they're done up with laces

I can be made of nylon or fur
And sometimes also of leather
I'm what you always like to wear
When outside there's cold weather
