If I Built a House
by Chris Van Dusen

Jack, in the backyard, said to his mother.

This house is OK. but it's like any other. It's boxy and boring and basically bland. It's nothing at all like the house I have planned.

My house will be different. It can't be the norm. I'll think about traffic flow, function, and form.

Oh. it may include shapes like a tower or dome, but I'll focus on what makes a building a home.

It's the rooms on the inside that make it unique, so step through the door and let's take a peek.

We'll start with the basics, right off the bat. Check out my new Kitchen-o-Mat!

You don't have to cook and you don't have to clean, it's done by a space-age robotic machine.

It makes all the meals and the food is deeeelish. Then it washes and puts away every last dish.

The living room's next. It's fun! Come on in! The chairs and the table and the sofa all spin!

And trampoline lead to a giant ball pit. It's a pretty neat room, you have to admit.

- 6 Answer the questions. / Odpověz na otázky.

- Do you like Jack's ideas?
- Do you want to build your own house one day?
- Do you know any extraordinary house?
